Re: Appleton Papers, Inc. and NCR Corporation v. George A. Whiting Paper Company, Case No. 08-C-16

Dear Judge Griesbach:

I represent Appleton Paper, Inc. in the above matter. A status conference has been scheduled for tomorrow, February 6, 2008, at 1:30 pm (originally scheduled for 2:30 pm). I am writing to request the Court's permission to participate in this status conference telephonically. I am scheduled to return from meetings in New York to Chicago's O'Hare airport tomorrow morning, arriving at 11:40 a.m.. The current weather forecast predicts snow, and in anticipation of flight delays, I may be unable to arrive in Green Bay in sufficient time to attend the status conference in person, and would be grateful for the court's permission to call into the conference.

Very truly yours,

Linda M. Doyle
